

2021: Clouds will give way to the Sun

Twenty twenty has been an eventful year
With Wuhan, George Floyd and Coronavirus surrounding our ears
Although our world has been gripped by a sense of fear
Do not fret because twenty twenty one will soon be here!

Twenty twenty one has a great deal of hopes to carry
Be it the birth of a child or the everlasting wish to marry
It carries the hopes of a world that will rejoice
Irrespective of your gender or race you shall have a voice!

The world will hold hands as it will step into twenty twenty one
We will come out of this pandemic and feel the warmth of the sun
The beginning of the end of the invisible enemy is quite near
Very soon twenty twenty one will be here!

We will once again open our homes to one and all
Schools and colleges will once again commence in the fall
Through twenty twenty one we shall all stand tall
Because united we stand and divided we fall

The horns of trucks shall once again blare
Cars will zoom past here and there
The lonely streets will once again be filled with a myriad of sounds
Do not fret twenty twenty one is just around

Children will finally get a chance to pry their eyes off of screens
Listening to the teachers voice virtually and wondering what she means
We'll go back to the antiques of school
Twenty twenty one is coming so don't lose your cool!

We'll all think twice before shaking hands
The news of our 'namaste' shall travel through the lands
Masks and gloves will be in style
Twenty twenty one is coming in a short while

In the times we live in, the future seems unclear
Our world is amidst a cloud of fear
But an end to our days of sorrow are near
Do not fret because twenty twenty one will soon be here!
