

TOPIC : LIFE AFTER 2020

A RETURN TO THE OLD NORMAL

Life is a punishment sometimes,
But a blessing from heaven;
Yet shimmer of hope lights it up,
When a punishment life feels deaden;
Life could take a detour,
Because of 2020;

And you may not adore life,
And then 2020 will glary;
At the loss of loved ones,
A last look will be missed;
But in the addition of new ones,
Online, we will be blissed;
Children will be devastated,
After social distancing becomes a burden;
And every excitement of meet and greet,
Will be forbidden;

Right here at home we learnt,
Its not only money making you happy;
Spending time with the ones you once loved,
Also known as family;
The wants have decreased,
And we have finally won over rapacity,
We realised taking the wrong path,
We realised in the year of 2020...
As generations pass by,
And we will be remembered,
Stories of the virus will be made and told,
And will eventually turn into a dangerous myth.
